Data Protection Declaration

You can register for the above-mentioned event on our website.

Mandatory fields (data required for the conduction of the event; legal basis Article 6 (1b) GDPR): First and last name of the contact person/registrant, email address, team name, first and last names of all team members.

Optional fields (voluntary information, consent legal basis Article 6 (1a) GDPR): Institution, number of previous participations, first and last names of possible guest participants, comments.

After your registration we process the data at the research institute CODE. The data will be sent by transport-layer encrypted email to the person in charge at the research institute CODE. The website servers are located in the IT center of the Universität der Bundeswehr München. The servers of the Institute CODE are located at a branch of UniBw M in the CASCADA building. Both server systems are state of the art.

We use your data for the organization and conduction of the event, in particular

1. we print lists of participants, which contain some data (team name, name of contact person, names of team members, names of possible guests),

2. we print name badges that show some of the data (team name, first names of team members),

3. we pass on some of the data (team name, first names of team members) to the moderators of the event,

4. we use your contact details (name of contact person, email address) to send you event-related material (e.g. information on qualifying, program, evaluation, subsequent CTF events),

5. the contact person soon after registration receives a personalized link to the game-/scoreboard of xoDynamics GmbH (https://www.xodynamics.de/), where a registration of the team with team name, password and email address (for verification of the account) is required,

6. we use the data of your registered team members also for the above-mentioned purposes (1-3).

Regarding point 5: xoDynamics GmbH (https://www.xodynamics.de/) is an external service provider and is responsible for the provision of the gameboard (provision of challenges) and scoreboard (provision of the points overview) during the event (qualifying and main event). The contact information (email address) provided during registration on the game-/scoreboard of xoDynamics GmbH will only be stored for the duration of the event and will be used within the scope of the event.

You have the possibility to object to the use of your data for these purposes, in whole or in part, at any time by sending an email with your request to datenschutz@unibw.de. We will then immediately stop sending you further information and your data will be deleted. In this case, we may not be able to answer your request or guarantee the participation of your team in the event. A revocation applies in each case only to the future use of your data. Already created printed matter that does not have a personalized character remains unaffected. Your data will not be passed on to third parties beyond the points mentioned above. The data will be deleted after the event has ended. It is intended to permanently display the team names officially online both textually and graphically (scoring list).

Further information on data protection, including your further rights, the possibility to complain and further contact details can be found at https://www.unibw.de/home/footer/datenschutzerklaerung#tile-id-d47dc1ef-d966-405e-90e6-bab394433477.
