MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Morocco is a country which combines modernity and traditions. The strong economic development of the country is carried out in the respect of ancestral traditions of welcoming and tolerance. Rabat Business School, International University of Rabat, offers programs dedicated to international students to allow them to discover this economic and cultural alchemy. Combining academic quality (RBS is accredited by the AACSB) and the pleasure of discovering the country's riches, our Summer Programs respond to requests for cultural and international openness from the students of our partners, coming from all over the world.

Welcome to Rabat, Morocco !

Dr. Olivier APTEL

Dean of Rabat Business School

- Each course is taught five times a week, Monday through Friday.
- Each course is 90 minutes long, per-day
- Total number of contact hours for each of the courses is 7.5 H / week.
- Students earn 1 ECTS / 0.5 US Credits per course per-week. Students can earn up to 9 ECTS / 4.5 US Credits if they take a total of three maximum courses.

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

TOUR OF RABAT

Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is an elegant city that follows the usual structure of major Moroccan imperial cities with the original downtown, which is called medina, surrounded by new modern neighborhoods. Rabat is rather quiet and is home to many tourist attractions such as: The Kasbah of the Udayas and the Mausoleum of King Mohammed V. A tour of Rabat is organized for program participants at the beginning of the program.

ARABIC CALLIGRAPHY WORKSHOP

Arabic calligraphy is the artistic practice of handwriting and calligraphy based on the alphabet. It is known in Arabic as “khatt”, derived from the word ‘line’, ‘design’. The Kufi model, featured here, is the oldest form and most widely used of the Arabic script. A calligraphy workshop is organized for the students.

MOROCCAN COOKING CLASS

Morocco is renowned for its delicious cuisine and what better way to immerse than an authentic cooking class. A fun and immersive way for students to learn and understand more of this wonderfully tasty cuisine. This is a great class for anyone looking to learn about traditional Moroccan cuisine that comes from a typical Moroccan home. You will learn how to prepare a home-style Moroccan meal. This activity takes place in a Moroccan home.

DAY-TRIP TO FEZ

During this trip, students will get to first have a guided tour of the Roman city of Volubilis, located in a vast Moroccan landscape, surrounded by almond and olive trees. The archaeological site is known for its beautiful, well-preserved mosaic floors, but it is the unique location in Morocco that really makes the Roman city of Volubilis worth a visit.

Participants will then visit the first Islamic capital of Morocco: Fez. Fez being one of the oldest and best-preserved Islamic cities in the world. Founded in 789 by Moulay Idriss I and made into the capital by his son Idriss II, Fez consists of three main sections: Fez el-Bali, Fez el-Jdid, and the Ville nouvelle. Its medina is an international attraction and was declared a UNESCO world heritage site in 1967

DAY-TRIP TO CASABLANCA

During this trip, students will be able to admire the enchanting mixture of modern and traditional influences that shape the city while visiting the Habous District, the Royal Palace, the Aïn Diab Corniche, and panorama visit to Hassan II Mosque. A site visit to a Moroccan Association is also planned with a discussion with its founders to have a sense of civic activism in Morocco.

TESTIMONIAL

Kayla Zamanian, USA, Summer School 2018

«My experience in Morocco and at UIR can be summed up simply as a story of human kindness, generosity, and liberated learning. I am eternally grateful that UIR... guided me with a team of the most selfless, wise, and genuine intellects I've ever met—who provided me with a space and the resources to explore, discuss, and indulge in my greatest interests. My time here in Morocco and at UIR are something that I will never forget. I have developed a new family, home, and persona here and I can't wait to return.»
