

Visions of Global Order, 1919

Peace, Law and Security after the First World War

Royal Society of Edinburgh - University of Glasgow
29-30 May 2019

THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF EDINBURGH

 University of Glasgow

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

DAY ONE: Royal Society of Edinburgh

22-26 George Street, Edinburgh EH2 2PQ

10:30-10:40 Welcome and Opening Remarks (Peter Jackson & Christian J. Tams)

10:45-12:15 Panel 1: Transitioning from War to Peace

Carl Bouchard (Université de Montréal): 'War as a Crisis of the Rule of Law: 'Making Sense' in 1919'.

Martin Thomas (University of Exeter): 'Co-imperialism and the absence of Imperial Peace after 1919'.

Jean d'Aspremont (University of Manchester and Sciences Po Paris): 'The League and the Power of Experimental Narratives'.

12:15-13:15 Lunch

13:15-14:45 Panel 2: Legacies of Peace-making

Michael Williams (University of Ottawa): 'The Peace of Versailles in the Historical Imaginary: a View from the Right'.

Erez Manela (Harvard University): 'Averting Anarchy: Rethinking the Logic of Wilsonianism'

Isabelle Davion (Université de Paris IV – Paris Sorbonne): 'Le droit international en Europe centre-orientale : d'une condition imposée à son exploitation'.

14:45-15:00 Pause

15:00-16:00 Panel 3: People with Projects: Actors and Agency

Jean-Michel Guieu (Université de Paris I – Panthéon Sorbonne): "'Establishing the Empire of Law": Henri La Fontaine and his Project for a Lasting Peace after the Great War'.

Reut Paz (Justus Liebig Universität, Gießen): 'The Austro-Marxists' Links to Legal Theory: The Example of Hans Kelsen (1871-1973)'.

16:00-16:15: Coffee

16:15-17:15 Panel 4: Associations with Agendas: Reflections on Key Institutions

Daniel-Erasmus Khan (Universität der Bundeswehr, München): 'The Contribution of International Law Societies to the Shaping of a New World Order'.

Andrew Barros (Université de Québec à Montréal): 'The Bricks and Mortar of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace's Irenic Order: International Law and History, 1910-1945'.

DAY TWO: University of Glasgow

University Avenue – Main Building, Fore Hall

9:15-10:30 General Lecture (and Discussion)

Marcus Payk (Universität der Bundeswehr, Hamburg): '1919: A New Role for International Law?'

10:45-12:15 Panel 5: New Domains of International (Legal) Action

Leonard Smith (Oberlin): 'Sovereignty in the Mandates: the Jurists' Debates, 1918-1923'.

Christina Binder (Universität der Bundeswehr, München): 'What Status for Minorities in a New International Legal Order?'

Paolo Palchetti (Università di Macerata): 'The Impact of the Treaty of Versailles and Post-War Settlements on the Doctrines and Rules of State Responsibility'.

12:15-13:15: Lunch

13: 15-14:45 Panel 6: New Issues in Law and International Politics

Michael Cox (LSE): 'J.M. Keynes, The Economic Consequences of the Peace and the Historians'.

Sarah Dunstan (University of Sussex): "Pensez en juriste, parlez en paysan": International Law, Nationalism and the Possibilities of Self-determination in the Inter-war Period'.

Madeleine Dungy (European University Institute): 'Trade Politics in Transition'.

14:45-15:00: Pause

15:00-16:00 Roundtable: Legal and Historical Research on the Post-War Order

Alan Sharp (University of Ulster)

Isabelle Hull (Cornell University)

Christian J. Tams (University of Glasgow)

Peter Jackson (University of Glasgow)